Re: Continuing Professional Education Workshop: Ethics 101

The Finance Division of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill will host a continuing professional education (CPE) workshop entitled Ethics 101 at 1:30pm. on May 5, 2014, at Toy Lounge in the Dey Hall building. This event is open to the UNC-Chapel Hill community. You are encouraged to register early. Please see the agenda below.

This course meets the NC State Board requirements for North Carolina CPAs to obtain two (2) CPE credits.

The presenter will be Bryan Starnes, CPA/ABV. He is the Chief Accounting Officer at Meridian Senior Living. Bryan has spoken on numerous occasions at the Government Finance Officer's conferences, for the State Auditor's Office, several governmental units and is a guest lecturer at the Institute of Government at UNC-Chapel Hill.

Please see Mr. Starnes' bio below.

The fee for the class is $40. Unfortunately, we are unable to refund registration fees regardless of time of cancellation.

To register and make arrangements for payment, please go to the UNC-CH Event Registration site at <https://apps.research.unc.edu/events/index.cfm> Browse by Sponsor name "Finance Training", and then click on the CPE class. Registration will close on April 25, 2014, or as soon as the course is full. Your registration will be confirmed by e-mail.

To find directions or parking information, please go to the Dey Hall website at <http://www.unc.edu/toylounge/map.php>. Public parking options at UNC-CH can be found at <http://www.dps.unc.edu/Parking/visitor/visitorlotlocations/visitorlotlocations.cfm>. Allow time for a ten to fifteen minute walk. If you have any questions, please contact Catherine Buria at (919) 843-6719 or e-mail financetrainer@unc.edu.

We look forward to your participation.
